The Lords PROTEST On the Motion to Addreſs His Majeſty to ſettle 100,000 l. per Annum on the Prince of Wales.

Die Martis 25 Februarij 1736.

THE Houſe being moved, That an Humble Addreſs be preſented to His Majeſty, to expreſs the juſt Senſe of this Houſe, of His Majeſty's great Goodneſs and tender Regard for the laſting Welfare and Happineſs of His People, in the Marriage of His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales; and as this Houſe cannot omit any Opportunity of ſhewing their Zeal and Regard for His Majeſty's Honour, and the Proſperity of his Family, humbly to beſeech His Majeſty, That, in Conſideration of the high Rank and Dignity of their Royal Highneſſes, the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, and their many eminent Virtues and Merits, he would be graciouſly pleaſed to ſettle 100,000 l. a Year on the Prince of Wales, out of the Revenues chearfully granted to His Majeſty (for the Expences of his Civil Government, and better ſupporting the Dignity of the Crown, and for enabling His Majeſty to make an honourable Proviſion for his Family) in the ſame Manner His Majeſty enjoy'd it before his happy Acceſſion to the Throne: And alſo humbly to beſeech His Majeſty, to ſettle the like Jointure on Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales, as her Majeſty had, when ſhe was Princeſs of Wales, and to aſſure His Majeſty, that this Houſe will be ready to do every thing on their Part, to perform the ſame, as nothing will more conduce to the ſtrengthening of His Majeſty's Government, than honourably ſupporting the Dignity of their Royal Highneſſes, from whom we hope to ſee a numerous Iſſue, to deliver down the Bleſſings of His Majeſty's Reign to the lateſt Poſterity.

The Duke of Newcaſtle, by His Majeſty's Command, made the like Signification to the Houſe of the Meſſage ſent by His Majeſty in Writing to the Prince of Wales, and of the Report of His Royal Highneſs's Verbal Anſwer, as is printed in the Votes of the Houſe of Commons of the 22d Inſtant:

And the ſame being read by the Lord Chancellor,

After long Debate upon the foregoing Motion,

The Queſtion was put, Whether ſuch an Addreſs ſhall be preſented to His Majeſty?

It was reſolved in the Negative.

Diſſentient

1. Becauſe that this Houſe has an undoubted Right to offer, in an humble Addreſs to His Majeſty, their Senſe, upon all Subjects in which this Houſe ſhall conceive that the Honour and Intereſt of the Nation are concerned

2. Becauſe the Honour and Intereſt of the Nation, Crown and Royal Family can be concerned in nothing more, than in having a due and independent Proviſion made for the Firſt-born Son, and Heir Apparent to the Crown.

3. Becauſe, in the late King's Reign, 100,000 l. a Year, clear of all Deductions whatſoever, was ſettled upon His preſent Majeſty when Prince of Wales, out of a Civil Liſt not exceeding 700,000 l. a Year

4. Becauſe His preſent Majeſty had granted him by Parliament, ſeveral Funds to compoſe a Civil Liſt of 800,000 l. a Year, which we have very good Reaſon to believe bring in at leaſt 900,000 l. and are more likely to increaſe than to diminiſh.

5. Becauſe out of this extraordinary and growing Civil Liſt, we humbly conceive his Majeſty may be able to make an honourable Proviſion for the reſt of his Royal Family, without any Neceſſity of leſſening that Revenue which, in his own Caſe, when he was Prince of Wales, the Wiſdom of Parliament adjudged to be a proper Maintainance for the Firſt-born Son, and Heir Apparent of the Crown.

6. Becauſe it is the undoubted Right of Parliament to explain the Intention of their own Acts, and to offer their Advice in Purſuance thereof. And tho', in the inferior Courts of Weſtminſter-Hall, the Judges can only conſider an Act of Parliament according to the Letter and expreſs Words of the Act, the Parliament itſelf may proceed in a higher Way, by declaring what was their Senſe in paſſing it, and on what Grounds, eſpecially in a Matter recent, and within the Memory of many in the Houſe, as well as out of it

7. Becauſe there were many obvious and good Reaſons, why the Sum of 100,000 l. per Annum for the Prince, was not ſpecified in the Act paſſed at that Time, particularly his being a Minor, and unmarried. But we do apprehend, that it is obvious, that the Parliament would not have granted to His Majeſty ſo great a Revenue above that of the late King, but with an Intention that 100,000 l. a Year ſhould at a proper Time be ſettled on the Prince, in the ſame Manner as it was enjoyed by his Royal Father when he was Prince of Wales: And His Royal Highneſs being now Thirty Years old, and moſt happily married, we apprehend it can no longer be delayed, without Prejudice to the Honour of the Family, the Right of the Prince, and Intention of the Parliament. And as in many Caſes the Crown is known to ſtand as Truſtee for the Publick, upon Grants in Parliament; ſo we humbly conceive, that in this Caſe, according to the Intention of Parliament, the Crown ſtands as Truſtee for the Prince, for the aforeſaid Sum.

8. Becauſe we do conceive, that the preſent Princeſs of Wales ought to have the like Jointure that Her preſent Majeſty had when She was Princeſs of Wales, and that it would be for the Honour of the Crown, that no Diſtinction whatſoever ſhould be made between Perſons of equal Rank and Dignity.

9. Becauſe we apprehend that it has always been the Policy of this Country, and Care of Parliament, that a ſuitable Proviſion, independant of the Crown ſhould be made for the Heir Apparent, that by ſhewing him early the Baſis and Dignity of Independence, he may learn by his own

Experience,

Experience, how a Great and Free People ſhould be govern'd. And as we are convinc'd in our Conſciences, that if this Queſtion had been paſſed in the Affirmative, it would have prevented all future Uneaſineſs that may unhappily riſe upon this Subject, by removing the Cauſe of ſuch Uneaſineſs, and giving His Royal Highneſs what we apprehend to be his Right; We make uſe of the Priviledges inherent in Members of this Houſe, to clear our ſelves to all Poſterity from being concerned in laying it aſide.

10. Laſtly, We thought it more incumbent upon us to inſiſt upon this Motion, for the ſake of this Royal Family, under which alone we are fully convinced we can live Free, and under the Royal Family we are fully determined we will live Free.

His Majeſty's Meſſage to the Prince of Wales, by the Lord Chancellor, Lord Preſident, Lord Steward, Lord Chamberlain, Dukes of Richmond, Argyle, Newcaſtle, Earls of Pembroke, Scarborough, and Lord Harrington; which being in Writing, was as follows, viz.

HIS Majeſty has commanded Us to acquaint your Royal Highneſs, in His Name, That upon your Royal Highneſs's Marriage, He immediately took into his Royal Conſideration the ſettling a proper Jointure upon the Princeſs of Wales; but his ſudden going abroad, and his late Indiſpoſition ſince his Return, had hitherto retarded the Execution of theſe his gracious Intentions; from which ſhort Delay His Majeſty did not apprehend any Inconveniencies could ariſe, eſpecially ſince no Application had, in any Manner been made to Him upon this Subject by your Royal Highneſs; And that His Majeſty hath now given Orders for ſettling a Jointure upon the Princeſs of Wales, as far as He is enabled by Law, ſuitable to her high Rank and Dignity; which He will, in proper Time, lay before his Parliament, in order to be rendered certain and effectual, for the Benefit of Her Royal Highneſs.

The King has further commanded us to acquaint your Royal Highneſs, that, although your Royal Highneſs has not thought fit, by any Application to His Majeſty, to deſire that your Allowance of Fifty Thouſand Pounds per Annum, which is now paid you by monthly Payments, at the Choice of your Royal Highneſs, preferably to quarterly Payments, might, by His Majeſty's further Grace and Favour, be rendered leſs precarious, His Majeſty, to prevent the bad Conſequences, which, He apprehends, may follow from the undutiful Meaſures, which, His Majeſty is informed, your Royal Highneſs has been adviſed to purſue, will grant to your Royal Highneſs, for His Majeſty's Life, the ſaid Fifty Thouſand Pounds per Annum, to be iſſuing out of His Majeſty's Civil Liſt Revenues, over and above your Royal Highneſs's Revenues ariſing from the Dutchy of Cornwall; which His Majeſty thinks a very competent Allowance, conſidering His numerous Iſſue, and the great Expences which do and muſt neceſſarily attend an honourable Proviſion for His whole Royal Family:

And to this Meſſage his Royal Highneſs the Prince returned a verbal Anſwer, which, according to the beſt Recollection and Remembrance of the Lords, was in Subſtance as follows, viz.

That his Royal Highneſs deſired the Lords to lay him, with all Humility, at His Majeſty's Feet; and to aſſure His Majeſty, that he had, and ever ſhould retain the utmoſt Duty for His Royal Perſon; That his Royal Highneſs was very thankful for any Inſtance of His Majeſty's Goodneſs to him, or the Princeſs, and particularly for His Majeſty's gracious Intention of ſettling a Jointure upon her Royal Highneſs; but that, as to the Meſſage, the Affair was now out of his Hands, and therefore he could give no Anſwer to it:

After which, his Royal Highneſs uſed many dutiful Expreſſions towards His Majeſty, and then added, "Indeed, "my Lords, it is in other Hands; I am ſorry for it." or to that Effect:

His Royal Highneſs concluded with earneſtly deſiring the Lords, to repreſent his Anſwer to His Majeſty in the moſt reſpectful and dutiful Manner.

Reſolved,

That a Sum not exceeding Twenty Thouſand Pounds be granted to His Majeſty, towards ſettling and ſecuring the Colony of Georgia in America.

LONDON, March 26.

The Malecontents in Corſica have lately renewed their Engagements to one another, and have taken an Oath to die, every Man of them, rather than ſubmit again to the Republick of Genoa: In the mean time they are ſupplied with Arms, Ammunition, and Proviſions from Catalonia, and often advance up to the very Gates of Baſtia, from whence they lately carried off an out-Centinel.

The Genoeſe ſeem determined to exert their whole Strength, for the Preſervation of Corſica, ſince not only they have ſhipp'd off the Companies of Griſons, they lately hired with Money, and all manner of Proviſions and Ammunitions, but even are ſaid to be treating with the Emperor for ſome Regiments now in Italy:

Letters from Paris, March 17.

The Count de Maurepas by cloſe queſtioning M. Chauvelin, has diſcover'd a ſecreted Box, full of Jewels, belonging to the Crown, which was carried off by the King's Orders.

'Tis certain that the Count de Vaugrenan our Ambaſſador at Madrid is recall'd home to give ſome further Eclairciſſement concerning the Scheme of M. Chauvelin, who continued to be the Object of Publick Hatred, and is ſeen by Nobody but the Count de Maurepas, who by the King's Order goes frequently to Grosbois to aſk him ſome diſagreable Queſtions about divers Affairs.

The Order of the FREE-MASONS increaſes ſo faſt, that it now takes up 9 Lodges; amongſt the new Members are the Prince of Conti, all young Dukes, and even the Count de Maurepas Secretary of State.
